

Career College Completions and Employment Growth in California

Private sector career education colleges and universities could produce about 1/5 of trained career professionals needed to fill 46,500,000 jobs over the next decade. Institutions in the state of California will be integral to meeting that demand.

Completion Projections in California

Local Impact

Statewide, there will be more than 19 million jobs in California by 2024, an increase of over 2.5 million (15.1%) since 2014.

Total Openings

Growth: 2,651,100
Replacement: 3,962,200
Total: 6,613,300

Private sector career colleges and universities in California could contribute more than 1 million skilled professionals over the next decade to help meet this demand.

